Dear Sir,

I am sorry, very sorry that I did not speak to you last Saturday, and the more as I saw you when I called at the lodge in the afternoon about 5 o'clock. But I could not fancy that you were going to leave town. There are good many things I had wished to speak to you about. As you see from the date, I am in great hurry now; the Brig Clinton is going at 6 o'clock and I must be ready to go along. — Not speaking of other things, I am a little afraid that I can not get along to Asheville, making ~~there~~ due

Dear Sir

I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to go to the office.
I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have not had time. I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be able to go to

I would have made some ~~small~~ but necessary purchases for me, may be in advance of the expected salary, but now I can not do it. - Any letter would reach ^{me} in Charleston, I suppose, if directed to the care of Prof. Gibbs -
